Dear colleagues,

We are proud to present the May version of the FICSA Magazine in both English and French (for almost all articles). Our gratitude for translations goes to Marie-Therese Conilh de Beyssac, a previous FICSA General Secretary from 2011 to 2013 assisted by Marie-Paule Masson, FICSA staff.

A special thanks go to Anna Schlosmann from IAEA in Vienna who worked on the layout and design of the magazine.

This version contains exciting information on the current public health crisis including a poem, as well as interviews, legal issues, and important information for our members in the field.

We hope you enjoy the read and we would be happy to receive contributions from you for the next Magazine. If you are interested, please write to ficsa@un.org

Keep healthy and safe.
