Chapter II PURPOSES AND FUNCTIONS

Article 2 The purpose of the Federation shall be to promote amongst its Member staff associations/unions (hereinafter called the "Full Members") and associate staff associations/unions (hereinafter called the "Associate Members") the exchange of information and views on all questions of common interest, the co-ordination of their activities, and to represent its Full Members in negotiations with bodies of the United Nations common system in order to:

Chapter III MEMBERSHIP AND OTHER STATUS

Chapter III hereby defines the two categories of Membership and three types of status in the Federation:

Full Member

Article 6 Full Membership of the Federation shall be constituted by the staff associations/unions of organisations belonging to the United Nations system as defined by the International Civil Service Commission (ICSC) or applying the terms and conditions of service of the United Nations common system which are governed by the ICSC, and by the staff associations/unions of regional offices of any of these organisations which:

Article 7 A properly substantiated application for Full Membership shall be addressed to the Executive Committee. Properly substantiated entails documentation such as the statutes, recognition agreement (if one exists), election of officers, number of members and the latest financial statement. Approval of the application shall require a decision by two-thirds majority of votes cast by the Council, in the light of a recommendation by the Executive Committee. Such voting can occur during a Council or by postal vote during the period between Councils.

Article 8 A Full Member wishing to withdraw from the Federation shall give notice in writing (including by electronic means) to the Executive Committee. Withdrawal shall become effective six months after the notice has been received, without prejudice to the duty of the withdrawing Full Member to pay all outstanding dues and to fulfil all outstanding obligations to the Federation. The Executive Committee shall immediately inform all Full and Associate Members of any such notice of withdrawal.

Associate Member

Article 9 Associate Membership of the Federation shall be constituted by the staff associations/unions of international organisations not belonging to the United Nations common system as defined by the International Civil Service Commission (ICSC) and not applying the terms and conditions of service of the United Nations common system as governed by the ICSC, and which:

Approval of the application shall require a decision by a two-thirds majority of votes cast by the Council, in the light of a recommendation by the Executive Committee. Such voting can occur during a Council or by postal vote during the period between Councils.

Article 11 An Associate Member wishing to withdraw from the Federation shall give notice in writing (including by electronic means) to the Executive Committee. Consultative Status

Article 12 Consultative Status with the Federation may be granted by the Council, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, to associations/unions of actively employed or retired international civil servants and to similar bodies which do not fulfil the conditions stated in Articles 6 or 9 of the Statutes, but whose aims are similar to those of the Full Members and Associate Members of the Federation.

Article 12bis A properly substantiated application for Consultative Status shall be addressed to the Executive Committee. Special Status

Article 16 Special Status with the Federation may be granted by the Council for a period of one year to associations/unions that are potential Full Members. Special Status is available so as to allow a reasonable period of time for a potential Full Member to acquaint itself with FICSA and prepare itself to meeting the requirements for an eventual request to become a Full Member. This status may be renewed once on an exceptional basis for an additional year.

Article 17 The rights and obligations deriving from Special Status shall be defined by the Council of the Federation, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, and applied to all associations/unions with that status.

Chapter IV ORGANS AND OFFICERS OF THE FEDERATION

Article 18 The Federation shall act through its organs: The Council and the Executive Committee. The Officers of the Federation are:

- the members of the Executive Committee; and
- the five Regional Representatives.

The Terms of Reference of the Officers of the Federation are annexed to these Statutes and approved by Council in accordance with Article 20(c)(2) of the Statutes.

The Council

Article 19 (a) The Council shall be the highest organ of the Federation. Each Full Member shall be represented on the Council.
 (b) Each Associate Member shall be represented on the Council, without voting rights unless Council decides otherwise.
 (c) The Council shall draw up its rules of procedure and the financial rules.
 (d) The associations/unions or local interorganisational federations having Consultative, Observer or Special Status may send representatives who may participate in discussions without voting rights.

Article 20 (a) The Council shall strive to make all decisions by consensus.
 (b) In absence of consensus, voting shall take place if requested by one Full Member and seconded by another Full Member.
 (c) The votes shall be counted in the following manner:
 (1) Elections require a simple majority of:
 (i) one vote per Full Member; and
 (ii) one vote for each staff member represented by that Full Member.
 (2) Amendments of Statutes, Rules of Procedure of the Council (hereinafter called Rules of Procedure) or Financial Rules require a two-thirds majority of:
 (i) one vote per Full Member; and
 (ii) one vote for each staff member represented by that Full Member.
 (3) All other matters and issues require a simple majority of:
 (i) one vote per Full Member; and

- (ii) one vote for each staff member represented by that Full Member, unless otherwise specified in the current Statutes.

- Article 21 (a) When under Article 20(c)(1) and (3) of the Statutes there is a split simple majority or when under Article 20(c)(2) there is a split two-thirds majority, whereby the double majority is not achieved, the final decision shall be made on the basis of a weighted voting system in which each Full Member's weighted vote consists of the sum of:
- (i) the total number of staff represented by all Full Members of the Federation, divided by the number of Full Members of the Federation, multiplied by 0.6; plus,
 - (ii) the number of staff represented by the Full Member, multiplied by 0.4.
- (b) Except when the decision referred to in paragraph (a) relates to amendment of the Statutes or Rules of Procedure, it shall be deemed approved by the Council when it receives more than half of the total of all Full Members' weighted votes cast, as defined in paragraph (a).
- (i) For election purposes, if no candidate obtains a double weighted majority as per Article 21(a)(i) and (ii) of the Statutes, one or more subsequent rounds of voting will take place in accordance with the Rules 40, 41, 42 and 43 of the Rules of Procedure.
- (c) A proposal to amend the Statutes or Rules of Procedure shall be deemed approved by the Council when it receives at least two-thirds of the total of all Full Members' weighted votes cast, as defined in paragraph (a).
- Article 22 The Council shall hold one regular session each calendar year. It shall hold an extraordinary session at the request of the Executive Committee or of at least one-third of the Full Members of the Federation.
- Article 23 The Council shall elect, for each session, a Chair and a Rapporteur. The report on the work of the session shall be distributed to all Full and Associate Members and associations/unions holding other status within 30 working days after the closure of the session. The text of all resolutions and decisions of the Council shall be communicated to all Full and Associate Members and associations/unions holding other status no more than ten working days after the closure of the session.

 - (b) To define the policy of the Federation and draw up the programme of work of the Executive Committee;

¹ The number of votes allocated to a FICSA Full Member for weighted voting shall be equal to

total number of staff represented by FICSA Full Members x 0.6 + total staff represented by the Full Member x 0.4
number of FICSA Members

For example, if the total number of staff represented by 28 FICSA Full Members is 26,000, the weighted vote of a Full Member representing 2,000 staff members would be

$$\underline{26,000} \times 0.6 + 2,000 \times 0.4 = 557 + 800 = 1,377 \text{ votes.}$$

- (d) To grant Consultative, Observer and Special Status to organisations that have applied for such status, to define the rights and obligations deriving from each status and to suspend the rights and obligations attached thereto;

Article 25 The Executive Committee may submit to a postal vote of the Council any important or urgent matter on which a decision cannot be taken during a session of the Council or which occurred during the period between Councils. The result of the vote shall be regarded as a Council decision and shall be communicated to the Full and Associate Members.

Article 26 In order to preserve the rights of a Full or Associate Member unable to be represented at a Council meeting, any such Member, acting through its legislative body, may submit a reservation on any decision of the Council on a matter of substance. Such reservation, with an explanatory statement, shall be notified to the Executive Committee not later than one month after notification of the decision has been received. The Executive Committee shall circulate such reservation among the Full and Associate Members.

Article 27 To assist it in the performance of its functions the Council may establish subsidiary organs. It shall define their terms of reference and elect the Chair and Vice-Chair(s) of any Standing Committee. Officers of a Standing Committee shall be eligible for re-election, but their tenure of office may not exceed five consecutive terms, unless otherwise decided by the Council in a particular case.

The Executive Committee

Article 28 The Executive Committee shall be responsible for implementing the Council's decisions and recommendations. It shall be composed of seven members:

President,
General Secretary,
Treasurer,
Two Members for Compensation Issues,
Member for Regional and Field Issues, and Member without Portfolio.

The Executive Committee shall elect from amongst its members such other Officers as it deems necessary.

Article 29 The seven members of the Executive Committee shall be elected by the Council as representatives of the Federation. Each nomination for election shall require the support of the association/union to which the candidate belongs. No association/union may have more than one member serving on the Committee. However, if after conclusion of the election a seat remains empty on the Executive Committee, a member association/union already represented on the Executive Committee may, at

The Council shall strive to balance gender, professional category and geographical distribution. - Article 29bis Upon being elected President or General Secretary of the Federation, the new Officer must step down from similar positions in his/her respective staff representative bodies.
- Article 30 Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected for a term of two years except when an election is organized to fill an unexpected vacancy. In even-numbered years the Council shall elect the President, the Treasurer, one Member for Compensation Issues and the Member for Regional and Field Issues in that order. In odd-numbered years the order of the elections shall be the General Secretary, one Member for Compensation Issues and the Member Without Portfolio. If there is an unexpected vacancy for any of these positions, the election of the Officers whose election would normally occur in that year shall be conducted first and the other Officer(s) shall be elected to serve the remainder of the mandate of the vacant position(s). The order of electing the Regional Representatives for a term of two years is described in Rule 39bis of the Rules of Procedure. Should there be no nominations for any one position, that position on the Executive Committee would remain vacant until a by-election for that position or positions is held. The by-election(s) shall be held at any time either during or between Councils if initiated by the Executive Committee or if requested by a Full Member eligible to vote and seconded by another Full Member taking into account Article 32(a) and (b) below.

- (a) Should a position on the Executive Committee or that of a Regional Representative be unfilled or become vacant more than six months prior to a regular election, the Executive Committee shall arrange for a by-election for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the unfilled or vacated position. Any by-election for a position unfilled or vacated less than six months prior to a regular election would only be under exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the Executive Committee. Exceptional circumstances have to be well substantiated in the call for candidates.
 - (b) The Executive Committee may, however, at its discretion, provisionally appoint a member of the Executive Committee to the unfilled or vacated position pending a by-election in accordance with paragraph (a) of this Article.
- Article 33 The Executive Committee may employ any person or persons and make any administrative arrangements necessary for carrying out its work provided a corresponding budgetary line has been approved by Council, subject to availability of resources and in accordance with the Financial Rules.
- Article 34 The Executive Committee shall have the following functions:
- (a) To provide liaison between the Full and Associate Members;
 - (b) To prepare the sessions of the Council, for this purpose drawing up the provisional agenda, a detailed report on the Federation's activities and a draft annual budget;

The Executive Committee should ensure that meetings and correspondence with the respective administration(s) are done in agreement with the Full or Associate Member of the relevant organization(s).

The Executive Committee should, upon request and where feasible, extend support within the framework of the present Statutes and of relevant Council decisions. If unable to provide such assistance, FICSA should explain in writing to the Full or Associate Member(s) concerned.

The Executive Committee and Full and Associate Members of the Federation should conduct themselves in a manner becoming of an international civil servant.

The Executive Committee should ensure, as appropriate, a constant and rapid flow of information to the Full and Associate Members of the Federation and organize expressions of support. Full and Associate Members of the Federation should ensure that relevant information issued by the Federation is made available to their constituents.

The Regional Representatives

Article 36 The Regional Representatives shall be elected for a term of two years except when an election is organized to fill an unexpected vacancy. In even-numbered years the Council shall elect the Regional Representatives for Africa and the Americas, and in odd-numbered years the Regional Representatives for Asia and Europe, all in the aforesaid order. If there is an unexpected vacancy for any of these positions, the election of the Officers whose election would normally occur in that year will be conducted first and the other Officer(s) shall be elected to serve the remainder of the mandate of the vacant position(s). Candidates for the Offices of Regional Representatives must be serving in the region concerned at the time of their election and be supported by the staff association or union to which the candidate belongs. However, if after the closure of candidatures, no nomination has been received for one of the empty Regional Representative seats, candidates from a different region may be nominated provided they have previously served in the region and have the competency and the knowledge of the region in which there is an empty seat. The Council, upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, shall define from time to time the regions (Africa, the Americas, Asia and Europe) for the purpose of the elections of the Regional Representatives as well as their functions.

Article 37 Members of the Executive Committee may be recalled by a vote of No Confidence if there is prima facie evidence of financial and/or professional mismanagement/misconduct.

A vote of No Confidence may be called for if one Full Member in good standing requests one and 25 per cent of the Full Members of the Federation approve.

It will then be put to a vote. Double majority in accordance with Article 20(c)(3) of the Statutes shall be required.

If a vote of No Confidence is successful, Article 32 of the Statutes shall be applied.

Article 38 Members of the Executive Committee or an association/union may be reprimanded for conduct unbecoming of an international civil servant.

A reprimand may be called for if one Full Member in good standing requests one and 25 per cent of the Full Members of the Federation approve.

The matter shall then be put to a vote. Double majority in accordance with Article 20(c)(3) of the Statutes shall be required.

Chapter V FINANCES

Article 39 The Federation shall be financed by the regular contributions of Full Members, Associate Members, associations/unions holding other status, and by voluntary contributions, gifts or bequests and fund-raising activities. The acceptance of any offer subject to conditions shall be reported to the Full Members within 20 working days for their approval.

Article 39bis Any association/union holding Consultative Status and with at least seventy-five percent of its Membership comprising retirees of the United Nations common system shall be exonerated from paying fees to FICSA.

Article 40 A Full Member which is in arrears of contributions with respect to any two preceding years by the opening date of the regular session of the Council shall not be entitled to vote or sponsor candidates at elections at that session if a sum totalling more than one year's contribution remains outstanding. This will be reported to the Council under the agenda item relating to the credentials of delegations in accordance with Rule 13bis of the Rules of Procedure and before any other business is addressed.

At that point, the Full Member will have the opportunity to justify why the dues remain unpaid and request that the provision of this Article be waived. The request will then have to be seconded and voted upon. If rejected, the Full Member will retain the right to attend the Council's plenary sessions, but its right to vote and sponsor candidates shall be automatically suspended.

Article 41 The Federation's accounts shall be submitted each year to an external auditor, who shall report directly to the Council. The Executive Committee shall ensure that the Membership receives the report of the Treasurer and external auditor no later than 20 working days prior to the opening of Council.

Chapter VI ENTRY INTO FORCE

Article 42 These Statutes shall come into force upon written notification of acceptance by six Full Member staff associations/unions.

Amendments so adopted shall come into force 30 working days after being communicated by the Executive Committee to the Membership, unless otherwise decided by Council or more than one-third of the Full Members objects in writing within the time period.
