Coaching and workshops support

04/26

Geneva
11 March 2026

To: FICSA Members

From: FICSA Secretariat

Dear Members,

FICSA is pleased to offer its members exclusive coaching and workshop opportunities designed to support staff navigating career uncertainty during this period of organizational change.

The session will be led by a FICSA-accredited trainer based in Austria: Gwyneth Letherbarrow of Feelgood Coaching and Consulting.

Additional training sessions conducted by Gwyneth Letherbarrow are available in the FICSA Training Catalogue.

Gwyneth has long experience in addressing the challenges of career development in the UN family and other international organizations. Whether you are navigating a career transition, preparing for an application, or dealing with the pressures of organizational change, Gwyneth brings more than 25 years of experience inside the UN system to every conversation.

You can book a free, no-obligation 20-minute call with Gwyneth – restricted to FICSA Members

The focus will be on situations where you may be unsure about an application you've submitted, a promotion you may have been passed over for, or a deeper reflection on whether your current path is still the right fit for you.

A dedicated FICSA area, including free masterclasses and information on workshops and coaching – restricted to FICSA Members

We encourage you to book a call with Gwyneth even if you are not sure where to start because 20 minutes of the right conversation can make a significant difference.

Please share this communication with all your affiliated members

In solidarity,
