

COMMUNICATION

Free Masterclasses in August “Unlock your career potential” delivered by a FICSA Expert

18/24

Geneva
22 July 2024

To: FICSA Members
From: FICSA Secretariat

Dear FICSA Members,

If you are looking for some tips and advice about how to approach your next job application, Gwyneth Letherbarrow of Feelgood Coaching and Consulting is offering a series of three, 45-minute masterclasses on how to “Unlock Your Career Potential” to our members. There is no fee for these masterclasses for FICSA members and as someone who worked in international organizations for almost 25 years, Gwyneth has long experience in addressing the challenges of career development in the UN family.

The details are as follows:

1. Your Next Job Application:

Are you excited about your job application because it feels right or just familiar? Recognize which emotions you should be paying attention to and write a stunning application.

Tuesday, 13 August 2024 at 2pm Central Europe

2. Writing Your Cover Letter:

Is the old version of you holding you back? Discover how to tell your story with confidence and throw out your pre-conceived ideas about re-stating everything in your application.

Wednesday, 14 August 2024 at 2pm Central Europe

3. Interviews and Videos:

Instantly connect with the interview panel on an emotional and psychological level so that you come away feeling fabulous about yourself.

Thursday, 15 August 2024 at 2pm Central Europe

Where: Online (the masterclasses will be held on Teams and login information will be shared closer to the event times)

*Please note that in the interests of data protection and to maintain confidentiality around questions asked during the masterclasses, these events will not be recorded.
Thank you for your understanding.*
