The UN Internal Justice System's response to Fraud

To: All FICSA Members

From: FICSA Secretariat

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to share with you a Legal Brief for the benefit of International Civil Servants on the following topic:

The UN Internal Justice System's response to Fraud

In brief

The United Nations' zero-tolerance policy towards fraud is rooted in a staff member's duty under the Charter and the Staff Regulations to uphold the highest standards of efficiency, competence, and integrity.

Please direct any feedback or questions to ficsa@un.org
