FREE MASTERCLASSES IN SEPTEMBER

45/21Geneva*20 September 2021

To: All FICSA members

From: Cosimo Melpignano, General Secretary

Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to announce that Gwyneth Letherbarrow from Feelgood Coaching and Consulting will be repeating two of the masterclasses held in August – Communication 38/21 to members of FICSA (Staff Associations). These will be held at the later start time of 6pm (Central European Summer Time) in an effort to accommodate those of you in non-European time-zones.

The details are as follows:

Wednesday, 29 September - New Job New You – How To Write A Stunning Application
Wednesday, 6 October - Interviews and Videos – Present Like a Pro!

These masterclasses will be held online on the above dates, each beginning at 6pm (Central European Time) and lasting for approximately 60-minutes. The events are free of charge and include content from workshops included in the FICSA Training Catalogue.

You will receive updates directly from Gwyneth at Feelgood Coaching and Consulting, along with the links and login details to attend the online events that interest you.

The masterclasses will be held using Zoom (no need to download any additional software) and you will also have the opportunity to ask questions during the events.

COMMUNICATIONS

Starting from Monday, 27 September, Gwyneth is also holding a different type of workshop for those of you who are either facing early retirement and aren't yet ready to stop working, or if you are considering moving into consultancy/service-based employment. We all know that the Pandemic has caused us to re-think our priorities, and for some that means a change in career, potentially taking that step to self-employment so that you can have more time for yourself and your loved ones.

Even if you're still employed full-time, there's a lot that you can already be doing without being in danger of a conflict of interest or breaking organizational rules to make the transition easier and setting yourself up for success.

From Employee To Business Owner

(Managing the transition so that you can successfully build your consultancy or service-based business starting NOW and stay on purpose)

Whilst we know it's impossible to see what the future holds, please only sign up to this event if you are seriously considering moving to consultancy or service-based work.

You can find all the details and register your spot here:

As someone who worked in international organizations for more than 20 years, Gwyneth understands the challenges of professional development in the UN system, and she has already helped 1000s of people worldwide. We hope that you enjoy these events and look forward to receiving your feedback.

We suggest you share this Communication only with your affiliated members.
