

INTER-PARLIAMENTARY UNION STAFF RULES

104.8 - Overtime and compensatory time off

(a) Staff members serving at established offices in the General Service category who are required to work in excess of the working week established for this purpose shall be given compensatory time off or may receive additional payment.

(b) Should the exigencies of service permit, and subject to the prior approval of the Secretary General, occasional compensatory time off may be granted to staff members serving at established offices in the Professional category who have been required to work substantial or recurrent periods of overtime.

(c) The Secretary General may set the conditions for overtime work or compensatory time off for staff members serving on missions or on other assignments away from their duty stations.
