

TRAINING CATALOGUE

Introduction

This catalogue summarizes and informs the FICSA membership of the training courses provided by trainers who have been approved by the Executive Committee. Coordination with the trainers must go through and be dealt with by the FICSA Secretariat. Regarding attendance, participants should bear in mind that their staff association/union or administration is responsible for all travel-related expenses, including requests for visas and trainer's fees when appropriate.

Hosting a training event

FICSA members wishing to host a training event should contact the FICSA Secretariat to ensure the availability of trainers. The host organization is responsible for all associated costs, including travel-related expenses, DSA and honorarium if applicable for the trainer (Please contact FICSA Secretariat). A FICSA Training Fund is available subject to the guidelines.

Registration and certificates

Announcement and registration forms will be prepared and send by FICSA secretariat. Upon the request of the host organization, seats may be made available for participants from other FICSA member organizations. A participation fee may be charged by the host organization.

Upon completion of the course, participants should receive their course certificate by email.

The course will cover:

- ✓ Brief historical perspective and relevance
- ✓ Fundamental principles
- ✓ Key definitions, clarifications
- ✓ The notion of rule:
Composition; Organization;
understanding; interpretation tools
- ✓ A “good” staff representative?
Ideas and discussion

Virtual 	Physical (Recommended When feasible)
Online: Zoom / Microsoft Teams One full day or two half days of 3.5 hours each, within the shortest possible time between the 2 sessions; Plan 2 weeks in advance to allow tailoring of the presentation to the organization	Duration: 1 full day or 2 consecutives half days of 3.5 hours each Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ A data projector with suitable sound system ✓ Wi-Fi ✓ Flip-charts ✓ Paper/pens, stationary Plan 2 weeks in advance to allow tailoring of the presentation to the organization.
WHY THIS COURSE? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Staff representatives are expected to be able to review and provide with an answer on almost any HR issue:

- ⇒ “HR told me this, what do you think?”
- ⇒ “What is the rule, which rule applies?”
- ⇒ “We have always done it this way, but is this correct?”

✓ While very often, knowledge of human resources management within an organization emanates from:

- ⇒ Long standing “self-training” in the Organization/System
- ⇒ Discussions with HR and non-HR colleagues, “Corridor” definitions
- ⇒ Historically acquired convictions, ideas, cultural perceptions, political orientations

✓ Is this enough as a knowledge base? Can there be something else to know about HR management in my organization?

COURSE OUTLINE

- ✓ Everybody in the organization “has an idea” about HR
Realizing that having an idea, is not having the – right - knowledge
- ✓ Long standing practices and acquired ideas vs. knowledge-based approach
Understanding how HR management is built on a number of principles and operating models, and realizing how they are often partially or erroneously known
- ✓ Staff representatives need specialized competencies to perform their functions
Acknowledging that HR management is a profession, which cannot be apprehended without specific learning
- ✓ International organizations operate on a stand-alone legal framework
Discovering how HR management in international organizations fundamentally differs from HR management in national/private environments.

Outcomes:

Staff representatives are equipped with HR fundamental knowledge so as to:

- ⇒ Enhance their competencies and skills, for their role, and their professional profile
- ⇒ Offer a knowledge-based service to the population represented
- ⇒ Improve the quality and efficiency of their interaction with HR and senior management
- ⇒ Increase their credibility, effectiveness and respect
- ⇒ Support the organization’s mandate delivery
